Rector's Message

"Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel..." – Collect for the Day of Pentecost, Book of Common Prayer

Pentecost reminds us that the Church was born not by human strategy, but by the power of the Holy Spirit. A rushing wind, tongues of fire, voices heard across languages and lands—God's Spirit moved freely and boldly to form a people centered not on fear, but on faith. That same Spirit moves in us today as we engage in ministry reliant on prayer.

Here at Trinity-by-the-Cove, we're carried by the Spirit's power as we live out the Gospel in our own time and place—it's a vibrant place even in summer! From youth pilgrims walking the ancient paths of Lindisfarne and York, to volunteers organizing a summer backpack drive for children in need, to the faithful hands and hearts that serve in the Church Mouse—every act of mission is grounded not in our strength alone, but strengthened by God's grace.

Even our boldest efforts—like building an elevated and resilient church—are ultimately Spirit-led. It takes faith to imagine a future safe from storms. It takes prayer to hold together beauty, tradition, and practicality. And it takes the Holy Spirit to guide every conversation, every gift, every decision along the way.

As we move through this season of Pentecost, let us remember: We are not alone. We are not directionless. We are Spirit-filled. May the Spirit continue to unite us across generations and ministries— in love, in generosity, and in holy courage. Come, Holy Spirit. Fill our hearts and imaginations and kindle in us the fire of your love.

Volunteer Corner

We feature opportunities for our parishioners to get more involved at church and in the community. This month we are featuring one of our past Community Grant Recipients, with a need that they have, as well as a more “in house” volunteer need. Please give each opportunity some thought and prayer, and if you are interested, let Ann Hudon, our Parish Life Coordinator know. Find her at ahudon@trinitybythecove.com or 239.262.6581 ext. 210, or in the Parish Hall after each service on Sundays.

Trinity “Community Grant Recipient” Opportunity Champions for Learning

Would you like to be a catalyst for educational success? Summer may be upon us, but the necessity to support Collier County students and their teachers never takes a summer break. Founded in 1990, Champions For Learning strives to change the lives of local students and educators. Nearly 64% of Collier County Public School students are “economically needy.” Of the students enrolled in Champions for Learning Student Programs, 89% come from households living at or below poverty level. Champions for Learning supporters help to mentor students and select classroom grant awards. They provide office and event support. They provide educators the support and resources to experience professional success, and they select the six Golden Apple recipients. They coach students and empower them to choose their own path to success. They care, and love, and give their valuable time. They are changemakers.

Whether you’re looking for a weekly commitment or a one-off event, they have numerous volunteer roles to complement your interests and schedule.

No experience is required for most opportunities, and orientation or training is provided. Some opportunities have ongoing availability, while others only occur during specific times of the year. Please consider supporting worthy students and their teachers who are inspiring, uplifting, and changing the trajectories of young lives.

Champions for Learning is proud to have a Four-star rating from Charity Navigator.

Trinity “In-House” Volunteer Opportunity - Sunday Greeter

What is a Greeter and why are they important?

Greeters are the first point of contact for visitors and newcomers to our parish. A simple smile and warm greeting let new people know they are welcome at our worship service.

What exactly does a Greeter do?

Greeters wear their name tag and arrive 20-30 minutes before the beginning of the service.

They stand outside the front door of the church and warmly greet all who are arriving, intentionally seeking out those who are new. They introduce themselves and invite new guests to coffee hour.

At coffee hour, let the new person lead the conversation, but offer to introduce them to other parishioners, and answer questions. Try to sense if they want to chat or be left alone.

If visitors would like to get information about Trinity, ask them to sign the guest book and share their email address.

Sounds easy; how can I serve as a Greeter?

Elevated & Resilient Church

In response to major flooding from Hurricanes Ian and Milton (Ian flooding right), the Vestry formed the Storm Resilience Committee to discern how best to protect our sacred spaces for generations to come. After study, listening, and prayer, the Committee unanimously recommended replicating our beautiful church at a higher elevation and to modern codes (rendering below). The Vestry agreed—and has now appointed a Building Committee to carry the project forward. We're grateful to the following parishioners who have agreed to serve: John Eick (Chair), Mark Borelli, Mark Goebel, Helene McGill (Treasurer), Kathryn Morgan, and Jay Morgeson. As their work begins, regular updates and parish forums will help keep everyone informed and engaged. If you haven't yet, please read the Committee's full recommendation and watch the forum recordings on our YouTube channel. You'll find all materials under the Storm Resilience tab on our website. Your prayers and insights are still essential. Email thoughts to resilience@trinitybythecove.com, or come share them with me over a cup of coffee—I'd love to talk. —Fr. Edward

Elevated & Resilient Church

1. Since the Vestry's decision, what have been the next steps?

After voting unanimously to replicate the church at a higher elevation, the Vestry appointed a Building Committee to steward the next phase of planning. The committee has been meeting regularly and, through a competitive bid and interview process, selected D. Garrett Construction as our Construction Manager. We are now working closely with our architect to refine the design and prepare for the next phases of development.

2. Who is the architect?

The project is being led by McWard & Associates, specifically architects Wil Ward and Jan Ward. The firm, founded in Naples in 1986 by Wil and Jan, brings over 35 years of local architectural expertise. Wil has completed over 260 commercial and residential projects in Southwest Florida, blending structural insight, local knowledge, and aesthetic vision. Jan Ward excels at integrating spatial function with interior detail for a seamless, warm design. They've collaborated with Trinity-by-the-Cove for over two decades: designing the Sunday School wing, the elevated Parish Hall, and various renovation efforts. Notably, Jan's parents, Lorry and Clyde McBride, were long-time church members and are laid to rest in the West Churchyard—adding deep personal connection to their work.

3. Who is the Construction Manager?

Following a competitive bid process, the Building Committee selected D. Garrett Construction as our construction manager, a trusted Naples-based firm with over 40 years of experience in high-quality building in Naples. They successfully managed the elevated Parish Hall project and led emergency restorations after Hurricanes Ian and Milton. For this church project, Bruce Gilbert will be the lead, and we'll benefit from the same superintendent who worked on the elevated Parish Hall project and who knows our site and standards well—ensuring consistency and confidence throughout the build.

4. What's exciting about this project?

This is a unique opportunity to preserve the sacred beauty of our beautiful church while preparing it for the future. The new building will look and feel like Trinity—but be elevated above flood levels, fully accessible, equipped for modern ministry, and up to current wind codes. It's a faithful blend of tradition and resilience, built to serve generations to come. We're not alone in this work. Naples Community Church is also rebuilding—transforming their space into a sanctuary designed for growth and hurricane resilience. Like us, they're responding to a shared coastal need: to build well above flood levels for strength, safety, and lasting ministry.

5. How can I help?

Stay informed through forums, emails, and bulletins.

Pray for the committees and workers leading the project.

Share your thoughts and questions—we want your voice in the conversation.

Support financially, if you'd like to be a part of the initial fundraising, call Fr. Edward (239.919.0370)

Invite others into the vision, and help us build both a structure and a legacy.

Women of Trinity

"Time, Talent and Treasure"

When I became a member of the Women of Trinity Board in 2021, I was incredibly proud of our mission to support various charities in Collier County and beyond. Our goal continues to help those in need, so much so that we allocate our entire budget to fund important Grants to other groups, near and far, that need our support.

Ways to get involved:

- TIME: Volunteering at Trinity-by-the Cove Mouse Thrift Shop opens the door to new friendships, plus great discounts on our donated treasures! Gather in the Mouse on Thursday mornings to sort, price and organize new merchandise.
- TALENT: We are blessed to have so many talented and smart women here at Trinity-by-the Cove and if you are interested, I encourage you to prayerfully consider volunteering for one of the many options that are available in the coming months, beginning in August when we will gather in our Conference Room to stuff envelopes for Invitations for our fabulous Preview Party.
- TREASURE: One highlight of Women of Trinity's activities is our Annual Christmas Market and the popular Golden Mouse filled with special treasures. The dates this year are Friday and Saturday, November 14 and 15. As our events draw near, we will post volunteer jobs on <https://tbtc.ivolunteer.com/>. if you are uncertain or have questions, please call or email me and we can talk about what makes sense for you.

100% of all the proceeds of our Monthly Sales and the Christmas Market are given to charity.

Golden Mouse - We're Collecting Donations

Are you spending the summer in Naples and looking to pass along some special treasures? We'd love to receive your donations for the Golden Mouse — and even more, we'd love to hear the stories behind them!

There are a few easy ways to donate (just be sure to clearly mark items for the Golden Mouse):

1. Drop off at the Mouse – Use the front room, but please label clearly for the Golden Mouse and keep them separate from regular Mouse donations.
2. Drop off at the Office – Bring your treasures to Ann Hudon's office and we'll take it from there.
3. Need help or have questions? – If you have several items or need assistance, just text or email us!

Music at Trinity-by-the-Cove

I'm pleased to present the Music at Trinity concert series for the 2025-2026 season! I am certain that the lineup of performers for this season will provide great variety, artistry and great enjoyment for all music lovers.

Our season begins on Sunday October 19th with a recital by emerging cellist Gabriel Martins. Mr. Martins is a Brazilian-American cellist who has collected a rather extensive list of accolades such as the Sphinx Competition Gold Medal, the David Popper International Cello Competition Gold Medal, and the Concert Artists Guild/Young Classical Artists Trust Grand Prize. The Strad Magazine declared his New York City recital debut as "flawlessly played.... a deeply moving experience" and Classic FM named him one of their "30 under 30" Rising Stars. His Trinity program features a wonderful pairing of old and new: Bach's Cello Suite No. 1 with its unmistakable first movement prelude, some pieces composed by Martins himself, and ending with Zoltán Kodály's Sonata for Solo Cello.

In November we will once again welcome one of America's most accomplished choirs, the Twin Cities based Cantus. Cantus is an ensemble of 8 gentlemen, and it is one of only two full-time jobs for choral singers in the U.S. Now in its 30th anniversary season, they've been recognized by The Washington Post for "exalting finesse" and "expressive power". Working without a conductor, the members of Cantus rehearse and perform as chamber musicians, each contributing to the entirety of the artistic process. Cantus performs at Trinity-by-the-Cove on Sunday, November 16th.

Our annual Christmas by the Cove choir carol concerts in December will of course feature the customary two performances of the Christmas choir concert on Saturday December 13th and Sunday December 14st. Make sure to sign up fast as these concerts always reach capacity!

2025-2026 Concert Series

Turning the calendar to 2026, in January we will welcome another period instrument Baroque ensemble, a genre I have worked hard to cultivate on our concert series as there is hardly any of this type of performance in Naples. Our guest ensemble will be Echoing Air. Hailing from Indianapolis, the group is comprised of two countertenors, recorders, and basso continuo. Their name is inspired by a well-known song by Henry Purcell "Hark, the Echoing Air", and as such they place an emphasis on music of the English Baroque.

Our February concert might be my most eagerly anticipated, as it marks the first time in our series that we present not one but two first class choirs on our concert season. Ensemble Altera is a very newly formed group but they are quickly skyrocketing, being described by the BBC as "something extraordinary" and "a leading ensemble on the American choral scene" (Scherzo Magazine). Regarding their debut recording, "The Lamb's Journey" the Preis der deutschen Schallplattenkritik (German Record Critics' Award) stated that "no recent recording debut in this field has been as spectacular". This will be their first tour to Florida and quite simply run, don't walk to Trinity on Sunday February 15th. Might you have the spiritual gift of hospitality?: the members of Ensemble Altera have agreed to stay in parishioner homes to help keep costs reasonable, which for 15 individuals is rather significant. If you would be interested in hosting 1-2 singers please be in contact with me directly: tkennedy@trinitybythecove.com

Our season concludes on March 8th with GRAMMY winning guitarist Jason Vieaux. Those of you who love classical guitar won't want to miss this one! We haven't had a guitarist since I've been at Trinity and this instrument will sound wonderful in our intimate church. Jason Vieaux is one of the most elite guitarists performing today, and Gramophone Magazine went so far as to call him "perhaps the most precise and soulful classical guitarist of his generation." He has toured throughout the world, and teaches both the Curtis Institute of Music and the Cleveland Institute of Music.

I can't wait to share these amazing artists with you! Further details and information on how to support the Friends of Music will be forthcoming during the summer. I thank you in advance for your participation and support and can't wait to welcome you to the concerts!

Children

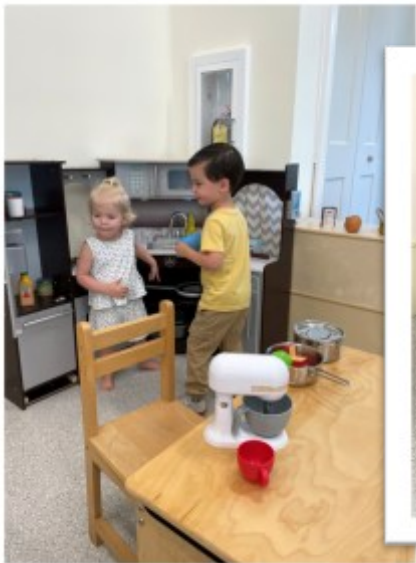

Summer Nursery Schedule

The nursery is available for the 10 a.m. Sunday service. Our Mom's Morning Out program ended in May and will reopen in September. The children have made amazing growth in the past school year and it was sad to say goodbye to our MMO children yet exciting to see the new friendships and connections. We look forward to their return in September!

Holy Spirit Comes at Pentecost

The children celebrated Pentecost early this year on May 18th, before the formation year ended. They were very engaged and happy to have Mother Marcella join us for our celebration. We used a red prayer cloth on the table. We learned about the gifts and lit seven candles. The children and catechists read Bible verses and sang songs. Each one of the candles represented a gift of the Holy Spirit. Afterwards each adult and child lit their candle at the gift which he or she desired most to receive.

Youth

A Grateful Heart for a Holy Year Youth Formation Year-End Reflection

A very heartfelt thank you and deep praise to all the parents and grandparents who brought their children to religious formation this year. Your faithfulness has been a visible testament to the importance of nurturing the next generation in Christ's love.

Whether we were in the parish hall, on the labyrinth, in the family room, in the kitchen, or gathered in our atria and youth room we continued. We began the 2024-2025 year with the energy and hope of Rally Day, and even in the wake of Hurricane Milton, we finished the year with perseverance and rejoiced in the Holy Spirit.

We are profoundly grateful for the creativity, flexibility, and faith of our catechists, nursery staff and volunteers—from the Atrium on the labyrinth to the many hours spent restoring our atria and planning new presentations. Every effort, big and small, made a difference in the lives of our children and in the life of this parish.

In the joyful buzz of the courtyard, in the quiet wonder of children meeting the Good Shepherd, in the warmth of parents gathered in community, and in the reverence of families worshiping together, we have ended this year in holy joy. The Holy Spirit is surely present in this place.

*Gray Ingram, Luke Halcom,
Alex Borelli, Julia Caccese*

The Great Escape!

Escaped at last! Escaped at last! With just 63 seconds to spare, our clever youth—guided by Emily Buckman and Julie Hyer—successfully made their way out of the Tropic Escape Room in Bonita Springs. The adventure wrapped up with a well-earned ice cream treat and plenty of smiles.

Youth Pilgrimage

For Young Persons

God our Father, you see your children growing up in an unsteady and confusing world: Show them that your ways give more life than the ways of the world, and that following you is better than chasing after selfish goals. Help them to take failure, not as a measure of their worth, but as a chance for a new start. Give them strength to hold their faith in you, and to keep alive their joy in your creation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Formation News

Last month we finished up our Sunday formation classes for the season. It was a great year of stimulating and enriching offerings. The Faith-Seeking Journey with Fr. Steve met all year long, for more than 30 sessions (congratulations to all who participated!).

Other offerings included Learning to Disagree with Fr. Edward, Challenging Conversations with Tom Morgan, The Development of Early Christian Belief with John Hushon, Advent with the Gospels with Fr. Nicholas, Bach in Advent with Art Wenk, Six Biblical Words Everyone Should Know with your Trinity clergy, Spiritual Treasures in English Literature featuring the Rev. Dr. David Marshall, and many more!

What you may not know is that all of these formation offerings (as well as many other presentations, and all of our live-stream services) have been recorded and are available on our YouTube Channel. You can search for a particular video or series, or browse videos from any of our playlists: "Past Live Streams", "Formation Offerings", "Faith-Seeking Journey", "Quiet Days", and our "Trinity Speaker Series".

As we take a break from our regular formation offerings this summer, perhaps there is something from this past year that you missed or want to revisit?

Just another resource for spiritual growth!

— Fr. Nicholas

Prayer and Studies

TUESDAY MORNING PRAYER

Morning prayer is a simple time of prayer and fellowship in the Anglican tradition. Join in with a Book of Common Prayer and your coffee or tea for Tuesday Morning Prayer at 8:15 a.m. on Zoom. Please email Mother Marcella for more information at mdrawdy@trinitybythecove.com.

TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

The Tuesday Morning Bible Study has begun to read The Letter to the Colossians. People there were influenced by an early Christian heresy that claimed that "true Christians" were "Spirit-filled" Christians, who were better than ordinary Christians and practiced a stricter morality than others. Some claimed they were already perfect, living the resurrection Spirit-filled life in this world. Of course, Colossians believes that Christians are filled with the Holy Spirit; but argues that true Christian faith "loves the saints" and hopes for heaven with a hope that is grounded in the truth, which is the gospel of Christ. The Tuesday Morning Bible Study meets in the Library at 10:30 a.m. Join us in person or via Zoom.

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Women's Bible Study takes a break for the summer and will resume after Rally Day on September 11th. We meet each Thursday from 9:00-10:00 a.m. in the library. For more information, please email Mthr. Marcella mdrawdy@trinitybythecove.com.

WOMEN'S TUESDAY EVENING BIBLE GROUP

Tuesday Evening Women's Bible Group meets the second Tuesday of the month in a parishioner's home. The group will resume study on September 9th. Please contact Mthr. Marcella for more information.

BROWN BAG BIBLE

We invite you to join our Bible Study that meets Tuesdays at Noon via Zoom. We kick off the new season studying the Prophets. If you are interested in joining our small group, contact Lorraine Thurber so that she can give you the Zoom invitation lthurber1@gmail.com.

MEN'S BIBLE STUDY

The Men's Thursday Bible Study is a great group of men who gather weekly to be in relationship with one another, to study Scripture together, and to grow in our faith. The discussions are lively and the bonds of friendship strong.

The group recently finished a study of the Book of Isaiah, and is now on summer break. If you would like to join us when we resume in the fall, we meet on Thursdays at 9:00 a.m. in the Conference Room or via Zoom. So, wherever you are, I hope you will join us!

If you have any questions, please contact me at ncaccese@trinitybythecove.com. --Fr. Nicholas

CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER

Our group meets weekly throughout the year on Tuesdays from 1:30-2:30 p.m. We begin each session with silent prayer and reflection on a spiritual reading. Join us in the library or via ZOOM if you would like to explore this way of drawing near to God.

SAVE THE DATE! RALLY DAY 2025

Pastoral Care and More

"For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven." Ecclesiastes begins. (3:1-8). Our lives are filled with seasons, and this particular passage gives us the breadth of life, from things that happen to us – a time to be born a time to die and those times in which have more agency – a time to plant and a time to pluck up what is planted... a time to embrace. There is time for all things in God's plan. These times are also marked in our liturgical seasons. We are in the season after Pentecost and it is a time of growth and reflection. For many, it is also a time of refreshment.

Recently, I have been thinking about seasons and time in my life. Right now, I enjoy my little home, making a few changes in it. I love watching my little dog Charley spend his evenings patrolling the perimeter of my yard, ensuring that it remains lizard-free. The quieter summer months are a season to rest, visit with family and friends, and plan for the coming year. God gives us the time for all things and I offer this time to him as I do these things.

I talked with a friend the other day and she was looking for a change in her home. She did not want to move to a new place but needed "refresh" in her house. She wanted a new season for her nest. Another friend spent most of last year traveling both far and wide to places in this beautiful world. She is now ready to be a little more settled.

And like humans the rest of creation is in a season of recharge and refreshment. Here in Naples the weather has begun to turn warm and heavy with humidity. We are in a season of much-needed rainfall as the increasing temperatures, and the change in the breeze work together with the Everglades' river of grass to bring forth our daily afternoon showers and thunderstorms. The season of renewal and growth, and refreshment for the environment of southwest Florida is here as dry lakebeds fill with water and our groundwater aquifers are filled.

No matter if you are in Naples or elsewhere in God's beautiful world, I hope that you offer to God your time in recreation and refreshment. [For] He has made everything suitable for its time... I know that whatever God does endures forever; nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; God has done this, so that all should stand in awe of him (Ecclesiastes 3:11a, 14). – Mthr. Marcella

SOLO FRIENDS

Solo Friends met for the final time this season for brunch at The Rooster Food & Drink and the sweet tea and biscuits were divine! It's summer and we are now planning the coming year of events. If you have some great ideas of things to do and places to go with Solo Friends, please send them to Mthr. Marcella. She and her planning team are always up for fun together!

Men of Trinity Breakfast

Join the Men of Trinity on Monday, July 14th at 8:00 a.m. for their monthly breakfast. Come and enjoy fellowship and the view of the water is always an added bonus! Please contact Robbie Roberts, Men of Trinity President at pgrjr3r@gmail.com if you plan to attend so that we may plan accordingly for food preparations.

ARTS FELLOWSHIP

Arts Fellowship meets the first Saturday of the month in the parish hall. We gather from 8:30 -11:00 a.m. to share our latest portable creations with one another. So bring your needlework that isn't quite finished, or a drawing or collage to begin. Mother Marcella will be there with coffee to share and a few unique treats. If you don't have "creative" projects to work on, bring cards you have been meaning to address or other work you can't seem to get to. The group energy will help you complete it in no time! Dates for the summer are June 7th, July 12th, and August 7th. – Mthr. Marcella

Standing Notices

- The Sacrament of Holy Baptism is celebrated at the Easter Vigil, the Day of Pentecost, All Saints' Day or the Sunday after All Saints' Day, and on the Feast of the Baptism of our Lord (the First Sunday after the Epiphany). Baptisms are reserved for these occasions or when the Bishop is present.
- The Sacrament of Holy Matrimony is offered to members of the parish, in good standing, and members of their immediate family. Lent is not a suitable season.
- It is expected for the parish office to be informed when a member of the parish is hospitalized in order to secure the ministrations of the church.
